

ing that big spending American companies had bought up all the accommodation.

Encounter Overland (0171-370 6845) has abandoned ambitious plans for a year-long trip in which two groups were to have set off from Greenwich and New Zealand, meeting midway in Africa. The company admits that fewer than 10 people had expressed an interest in the trip.