A 35-day journey along the Asian North West frontier is among seven new itineraries offered by Encounter Overland.

The trip begins in Islamabad and takes in five Asian states, including Uzbekistan and Mongolia.

TD

The one-off journey, which is due to take between 35 and 50 days, is intended as a reconnaissance trip for a possible regular series of tours.

A price will be published in the next few weeks.

Encounter ran a similar reconnaissance trip to Libya last year.

It has since introduced a 28-day expedition which includes Tunisia and the central Sahara.

The visit takes in Roman remains at Leptis Magna in Libya and at Carthage in Tunisia. The trip costs #860, excluding flights.
