

Martin James Hayes

Worked with EO	from April 1969 to January 1970
Age on joining EO	21
Nationality	British
Role at EO	Driver
Expeditions/Brief Encounters etc. led or taken	Iran training/selection trip – 6 weeks Morocco/Algeria. Leader Kathmandu/Calcutta 2 nd driver/ 2 nd vehicle 3 months with Jonathan Kickham
Why did you want to work for EO?	See below
Occupation before joining EO	Dropout London School of Economics/ van driver
Occupation after leaving EO	4 years + 3 trips to India with Intertrek Depot manager Burtons Biscuits Farmer
Now living in	Cornwall

Then photo(s)	Now photo(s)

Memories or anecdotes

Attended 'Overseas League' film and signed up for selection trip having seen the following AD in personal column of the Times which read 'Expedition Leaders required for a Season – No experience necessary!' This trip lead by Stuart Jenkins, departed from Victoria Station where we noticed he was putting crutches in the cab – 'in case any of us had an accident' – We didn't know that he was an amputee until later.